

SEATTLE MAGAZINE,
DECEMBER 2005

Best New Boutique Hotel

HOTEL MAX (Downtown, 620 Stewart St.; 206.728.6299 or 866.833.6299; hotelmaxseattle.com)

“You want it, you got it,” is the staff mantra at Hotel Max. This cutting-edge new downtown hotel offers guests a “You got it” button on every room phone to summon anything from slightly burnt toast to a new pair of pants, a pillow menu for discerning fluff fans and even more delightful—a spiritual menu in place of the ubiquitous Gideon Bible so you can choose between the Bhagavad-Gita, Book of Mormon, The Koran, Tao Te Ching, the Buddhist Bible, The Torah and at least three versions of the Holy Bible. Add to that a world-class collection of paintings and photographs by local artists gracing the lobby, the hallways and every room and you’ll think you’re in the heaven of your choice.