

CELEBRITY LIVING,
FALL 2005

Some say hindsight is 20/20, but we here at Celebrated Living prefer to look forward. We've scoured the world for the latest hot clubs, most unique boutiques, groundbreaking exhibits, and buzz-worthy restaurants — perfect inspiration for fall travel planning. BY LAURA J. VOGEL

17) SEATTLE: Fresh for fall, the irreverent, art-filled HOTEL MAX puts a fun spin on the boutique hotel concept. The new 163-room downtown Seattle property features modern-luxe rooms — as in coffee-colored walls offset by poppy-orange furnishings — and offers cheekily defined amenities (including “24-Hour ‘Spoil Me’ Service,” an “Executive Bored-room,” and “WiFi Everywhere!”). Proximate to all of the city’s great theaters and restaurants — and the classic Pike Place Market overlooking Puget Sound — the Max is a welcome addition to the city’s growing renaissance. Even more enticing to animal lovers: Pets are welcome. (866) 833-6299, www.hotelmaxseattle.com
