Unusual Do Not Disturb Signs

Recommend 5

I recently stayed at the Hotel deLuxe in Portland, Oregon, a boutique hotel with a theme that revolves around the bygone movie age. I loved the Do Not Disturb signs: Lights Camera Action on one side, Quiet on the Set on the other.

I looked for others, and here's what I found:

- *At The Lodge at Moosehead Lake in Maine: "In Camp" for Do Not Disturb, and "Gone Fishing" for maid service.
- *Tony Morse of Minneapolis says that when he stayed at the W Hotel San Francisco in 2000, the door hanger said: Go Away (please)
- *The Ace Hotel in New York has black magnets that say NOT NOW.
- *Anthony Klang says his favorite door hanger came from Hooters Casino Hotel in Las Vegas. On one side it says "No Knockers" and the other side says "Go Ahead – Make My Bed."
- *April Meese recently stayed at the Le Parker Meridien in New York where the door hanger said "FUHGETTABOUTIT."
- *Steve Weinstein says that the Hotel Murano in Tacoma, Washington, has a sign that says "Tied Up."
- *Finally, Hotel Max in Seattle has a Do Not Disturb sign reading "Nope" on one side and "Yep" on the other.
