

modern dog

The lifestyle magazine for modern dogs and their companions

SPRING 2009

Exclusive
Cesar Millan
The Man Behind the Whisper

Pill-Popping Pets

Does your dog need behaviour-modifying drugs?

The Raw Debate

Is a raw diet right for your dog?

Must Love Dogs

A single's search for love

THE AUSTRALIAN SHEPHERD

ASK DOG LADY

HEALTHY RECIPES

TOP DOG TOYS

COOL STUFF

UNDER $20

Healthy Affection VS Obsession

Are you cultivating separation anxiety in your dog?

5 Common Training Problems Solved — For Good

Puppies!

Easy ways to lose weight with your dog

Herding

Put your dog's natural instincts to work

Sarah Roemer and Dylan

Publications Agreement Number 40743013 Return Mail Dept. 202-343 Railway St., Vancouver, BC V6A 1A4

DISPLAY UNTIL JUNE 09 CDN$5.95 US$4.95

THE MODERN DOG'S GUIDE TO SEATTLE
WHERE TO SHOP, EAT, STAY, AND PLAY.

By Elizabeth Gardiner · Illustration by Paul Dotey

Sniffed out: the city's best ideas for a full day of doggie nirvana. Herewith, Seattle's top dog-friendly hotels, restaurants, shops, and outdoor spots.

Hotel Max

620 Stewart St.
(206) 728-6299

If you and your dog are looking for an artistic experience during your stay in Seattle, Hotel Max is for you. This cool Provenance hotel is all about art; original works are showcased throughout the hotel. This, combined with the simple yet lavish details that characterize the Max's approach, ensures your stay will most definitely be unique. Dogs are welcome and spoiled at this hotel. A $40 fee gains a dog of any size entrance and includes dog bed and bowls, lots of treats and bottled water, and a welcome note.

hotelmaxseattle.com