

December 17, 2009

New Year's hotel package deals help you ring in 2010 in high style

By Alison Brownrigg

NWsource shopping columnist

There's nothing better than a decadent hotel stay, especially on New Year's Eve, when being out on the roads can be dicey. It's also a great holiday gift to share with your significant other. Here's a list of New Year's Eve hotel deals to help you usher in 2010 with a bang. (Some of the hotels below are offering good deals on other nights, too – be sure to check their specials pages.)

Alexis Hotel [1], Hotel Vintage Park [2] and Hotel Monaco [3]

While these three hotels all have distinct personalities, they're all offering a Save Our Sanity (SOS) rate for New Year's Eve revelry. The package includes 20 percent off available rooms (rates start at under $200), two complimentary glasses of bubbly (which you'll see is a common theme in this roundup) and discounts at a variety of Pacific Place retailers and restaurants. Use rate code SOS when booking online at kimptonhotels.com [4].

Hotel Ändra [5]

With its uber-cool Scandinavian-inspired décor and the proximity of Lola, Tom Douglas's Greek restaurant, below, Hotel Ändra is a great home base for bar hopping in Belltown. NyÅrsfest is their New Year's package with rates starting at $272 and includes a bottle of champagne, an Oxia oxygen blast for recovery on the day after, overnight valet parking and late checkout at 3 p.m. in case you have a hard time rolling out of bed.

Hotel Max [6]

With more than 350 original pieces of art and photography scattered throughout, this downtown Seattle hotel is artsy and hip. Its New Year's Eve package includes a bottle of bubbly, overnight valet parking and cab vouchers for transportation to and from your celebration safely. Rates start at $249; book online [7].